The Commerce of Chili.

Wheat has, for the last seventy-five years, been one of the main staple products of Chili, and when forty years ago gold was discovered in California, Chilian steam-ground flour was the first consumed in the mines, remaining the staff of life till in 1854; the first steam four mills were started in the new State, and subsequently the latter became even a greater wheat-producer than Chili. The only flour which Chili had to compete with during the pioneer times of the Golden State was Richmond, Va., flour, the favorite brands of which in the mines, were at the time "Gallego" and "Haxall." Chili, during six or eight years, from 1849 to 1857, became rich through its California traffic; the flour, barley, Chili beans and dried peaches in cakes consigned from Valparaiso to San Francisco left big fortunes to Chilian consignors, the flour separately bringing as much as $20 per bag of 300 pounds, Spanish, on the dock at San Francisco, and other goods in proportion. After the California market was lost, Australia, where gold was discovered in 1853, became a mine for Chilian wheat, etc., growers and millers, nearly as rich, and continued giving spendid returns even longer. Subsequently the Cape of Good Hope was added, and Chilian flour was besides shipped to Peru, Ecuador, the La Plata States and Brazil, even to the Pacific coast of Mexico and Central America. The Chilian wheat is of as good quality as California, and the flour not inferior to Baltimore. The only wonder is that as a wheat producer, Chili has since then not become as important a country as California. Now Chilian wheat finds its way chiefly to Europe, where it commands the top of the market. At any rate the productive capacity of the Republic, in this line is very great, and may be pushed to a greater development at any time in the future unless prices should decline so much in the world's markets that it cannot stand the freight from Valparaiso to Liverpool.

Chili is one of the most interesting countries of South America, inasmuch as it is not only a great cereal-producing country, but turns out some 35,000 tons of copper, now leaving big profits to the mining interests down there, and an almost unlimited amount of nitrate of soda, which is consumed abroad as manure. Chili also possesses tolerably rich silver mines. The Republic is moreover famous for its uninterrupted civil tranquility, being the only Spanish-American country where revolutions are a thing unknown. Chili covers an area of 753,216 square kilometers, and has a population of 2,000,000: the climate is mild and healthy throughout; the only drawback is frequent earthquakes. The indebtedness on April 30, 1887, was $83,491,326. The budget for 1887 fixed the income estimate at $43,000,000, and the outlay at $34,097,323. The only disturbing element in finance is the paper money, of which there is about $20,000,000 circulated, but it is gradually being redeemed. The strength of the permanent army is $5,547 men, and there is besides a national guard numbering 48,854 men. The navy consists of eighteen armored vessels, with together seventy-five guns, 17,080 ton capacity, 4,550 horse power, and manned by 1,988 sailors. The merchant marine consisted in 1886 of 173 vessels, of a joint capacity of 77,285 tons, including 37 steamers, of 18,528 tons.—The Millstone.

DR. NEWMAN CHOSEN

The Brilliant Pastor of the Capital City is Elected as One of the M. E. Church Bishops.

NEW YORK, May 24.—When Bishop Foster called the general Methodist conference to order all the delegates were in their places for about the first time since the opening day. The tenth ballot resulted in no election. There were 435 votes cast and 290 was necessary for a choice. Dr. Newman received 274, Goodsell 267 and Cranston 216.

The result had hardly been announced by the chair, when Dr. Bayless jumped up and offered a resolution in the interest of a fair connt. He suggested that when a conference was called the delegates should rise and pass their votes to the teller who should then declare the number of votes cast, of which an accurate tally should be kept.

The conference would hear to no such thing. They were all honest men and did not feel inclined to submit to any such indignity. The eleventh ballot resulted in no choice.

On the fourteenth ballot Newman was elected.

DR. GOODSELL ELECTED.

On the sixteenth ballot Dr. Goodsell was elected bishop by a vote of 320 out of 430.

The question as to the advisability of appointing a missionary bishop for India was under discussion when the tellers returned and announced Dr. Newman's election.

While the tellers were counting the next ballot much discussion was occasioned by a motion providing for the declaring of all the seats of the bishops-elect vacant, and inviting them to seats on the platform, which was finally passed.

TOOK TO THE WOODS.

An Almost Successful Attempt to Play the Gold Brick Racket Foiled by a Bank Cashier.

PORTLAND, Ind., May 24.—An effort to work the old threadbare gold brick racket on Wm. Newton, a wealthy farmer and fourth vice-president of the People's bank, was brought to almost a successful issue yesterday. Newton resides alone on his farm, a mile and a half north-west of this place. About a week ago a young man introduced himself to Newton and said he was in search of a man whose son had murdered a man, and having fled to the west entered the mining business, has been successful, returned to the east and had buried three gold bricks on his (Newton's) farm.

No such person was found here, and it was suggested he telegraph to Portland, Fountain county, and last Saturday the much-looked-for individual, a man past fifty years of age, arrived. A letter purporting to be from son to father was handed the old man, and it described minutely where the treasure was buried on Newton's farm, with a diagram describing where to dig for the gold. The three repaired to the spot. Newton was directed to thrust an iron rod into the earth and it struck a hard substance which, when unearthed, was yellow metal. Three bricks, weighing about thirty-two pounds each, were taken out It was decided to drill into them, take the drillings to Fort Wayne, where, as they said, was a government official who would make the test.

Yesterday they took Newton to Fort Wayne with them and a third accomplice made the test and pronounced the three bricks worth $32,000, and for a small consideration would agree to turn them over to the government for that amount. The three returned from Fort Wayne last night and the old man agreed to take Newton in if he could furnish $4,000. Newton came to town this morning and went to the bank to draw out the amount. Cashier Walt Haynes, thinking something was wrong, asked Newton what he was going to do with the money, but he declined telling and the cashier persistently refused to let him have the money unless he would tell him what use he was to make of it.

Newton then unburdened himself, and was advised to take the sheriff with him and arrest the swindlers. This Newton refused to do. Haynes started Newton home, and slipped around and gave the sheriff the tip, and repaired to the old man's farm. The rogues saw them approaching the house, and took to the woods, leaving their $32,000 worth of brass and zinc, two overcoats and a valise behind. A more bunglesome attempt at arrest could not be imagined, and the fellows are still at large.

Sought the Eternal Rest.

GOSHEN, Ind., May 24.—This morning a peculiar, but tragic, suicide occurred at Napanee, near hear. After her husband had gone to work, Mrs. George Reed, probably in a temporary fit of insanity, took her three months old babe in her arms and with it leaped into the well, drowning instantly. She left and affectionate note in which she said that she was tired of life in this world and desired rest. She was but twenty-three years old.

Horse Stolen.

DECATUR, Ind., May 24.—A fine horse belonging to Barney Terveer, of this city, was stolen from his stable. The thief secured the horse by breaking the lock on the stable door. No trace of the thief or property. The horse was valued at $200.

CENTENNIAL DAY!

The Two General Presbyterian Assemblies Unite in Imposing Centennial Day Exercises at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24—This was the centennial day of the Presbyterian church and the members of the two general assemblies united in great mass meetings in the Academy of Music and the Horticultural hall. The ceremonies began in both buildings at 10 o'clock this morning and the crowds in attendance at both were enormous.

In the Academy of Music Rev. J. J. Bullock; D. D., moderator of the southern general assembly, presided. The audience was apparently made up in equal proportion from representatives of the two assemblies.

Dr. Bullock made a brief, but eloquent address, cordially reciprocated the fraternal sentiments of the brethren from the north and said that whatever might be the final disposition of organic union, there was no feeling of alienation or want of faith on the doctrines of their sister assembly. There was no obstacle that he knew to fraternity or fellowship.

Rev. Dr. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, spoke an hour on "History of Presbyterianism."

"The Work of Presbyterianism for Future" was the subject of an address by Rev. Benjamin M. Palmer, D. D., of New Orleans.

A great audience also crowded Horticultural hall, adjoining the Academy and here too, there was the same commingling of the Northern assembly and the Southern branch.

Rev. Dr. Charles L Thompson, of Kansas City, moderator of the northern assembly, was in the chair. He introduced Congressman Wm. C. P. Breckenridge, of Lexington, Ky., who spoke on "Calvinism and Religious Liberty." His references to church union were received with extreme warmth. Rev. Howard Crosby, D. D., followed with an address on "Presbyterianism and Biblical Scholarship."

President Cleveland addressed the Presbyterian general assemblies, north and south, yesterday morning and in the afternoon, with Mrs. Cleveland, was tendered a reception.

Pickpockets at North Manchester.

WABASH, Ind., May 24.—Pickpockets are taking advantage of the immense crowds at the great Dunkard meeting, near North Manchester. Several Chicago and Fort Wayne "crooks" are on hand, and are working the Dunkards. Several robberies have been reported today. John P. Ebersole, of Tiffin, O., one of the oldest preachers in the church, was about to board a train for Indianapolis when he was roughly seized, his hat tipped over his eyes, and in an instant his pocket book, containing about $20 and several railroad passes, was missing. Another man, whose name could not be learned, was relieved of $700.

An Immense Oil Gusher.

LIMA, O., May 24.—The biggest oil well yet struck in the Lima field was drilled in last night on the Ducat farm, near North Baltimore. What Is in a Ton of Coal.

A careful estimate made by an English chemist of the contents or constituents of a ton of coal presents some interesting facts not familiar certainly to unscientific minds. It is found that besides gas, a ton of ordinary gas coal will yield 1,509 pounds of coke, 20 gallons of ammonia water, and 140 pounds of coal tar. Now, destructive distillation of this amount of coal tar gives about 70 pounds of pitch, 17 pounds of creosote, 14 pounds of heavy oils, about 9¼ pounds of naphtha yellow, 6.3 pounds of naphthaline, 4¼ pounds naphthol, 2¼ pounds alizarine, 2.4 pounds of solvent naphtha, 1.5 pounds of phenol, 1.2 pounds of aurine, 1.1 pounds of analine, 0.79 pound of tulodide, 0.40 pound of anthracine, and 0.9 pound of toluene—from the last-named substance being obtained the new product, saccharine, said to be 230 times as sweet as the best cane sugar. Germantown Telegraph.

Columbia City Post.

One night last week as Dr. Magers was returning to his home in Churubusco, from a visit to a patient in the country, he was waylaid and struck such a blow on the back of the head that he fell from his buggy to the ground in a senseless condition. When he recovered consciousness he was two miles from town. A couple of neighbors brought him home, and upon examination an ugly scalp wound was discovered. His team arrived home about 11 o'clock in safety. The object of the assault is not known, as the doctor's watch and money were not disturbed.

Booming a Favorite Son.

Columbia City Post.

It begins to look like Whitley county—that is, the congressional nomination will most probably fall to the Hon. W. F. McFagny, of this city. Whitley county has had very little recognition in the past and to give her the candidate for congress would be an honor to which the county is justly entitled. Mr. McNagny is a fine orator and a good canvasser and would carry the district by an immense majority.

EX-GOV. SAMUEL T. HAUSER of Montana is said to be one of the jolliest politicians and millionaires in Washington. His life reads like a romance. Many years ago he started out a poor boy, with nothing but pluck, energy, and a well-balanced mind. Like Pizzarro, he dreamed that there was an El Dorado, and he found it in Montana. There were few in the Territory that could throw the lasso, ride, and shoot better than cool-headed, daring young [illegible].

IT is said that Senator Bowen owes his wealth to a game of poker. Ten years ago he raised an opponent on a pair of deuces, bluffed him successfully, and won $100. He handed his winnings to a needy prospector for a grub stake. The needy prospector struck pay dirt, and in a few months Senator Bowen was the owner of the Little Annie and Golconda mines. These mines have yielded as high as $10,000 a day, clear cash. The ore in sight is worth nearly two and a half million dollars.

THE Philadelphia Board of Health fined a physician $2 0 for not reporting two cases of leprosy under his charge—regarding it as a contagious disease. There is just as much reason for compelling physicians to report cases of phthisis and cancer. In the Lancet, Dr. Richard Budd has given several illustrations of the contagiousness of cancer. One case he cites was that of a young woman of nineteen who attended an elderly woman with cancer, and, in spite of the physicians' protests, she washed out rags which were saturated with the discharges of the cancerous part. Six months after the old lady died, the younger woman exhibited cancerous tumors and speedily died of the disease.

JOSHUA JONES, who died a short time ago, worth $7,000,000, lived for many years at a New York hotel, and, although he made large bequests to servants, as may be seen by his published will, they were not his own servants, but those of his brother and sister, who died some time before. He kept up their two establishments, one of which was in the city and the other on Staten Island, as if he expected them to return, and left the servants with directions to have everything kept in as complete order as if the former occupants were in existence. Indeed, for a long time after the death of these two relatives he ordered that their plates should be laid at table, apparently believing that if their bodily selves did not return to occupy these vacant seats, their spirits, hovering about, would be glad to note his continued affectionate interest in them.

THE New York World Almanac for 1888 says that New York State permits polygamy and polyandry in certain cases. Desertion for five years, without knowledge that the deserter is living, permits the deserted one to marry again, and the second marriage is valid though the deserter returns. If all parties are satisfied, one husband may live in lawful wedlock with two or more wives, and one wife with two or more husbands. The children will inherit, and both wives are subject to dower. The law also provides that every marriage legal where contracted is valid here, and that a divorce obtained in another State is not valid in New York, unless both parties were under the jurisdiction of the court granting it. Under such rules a man may become, in the eyes of the law, the husband of many wives.

DR. CHARLES E. SIMMONS of New York, has brought suit against the executors of the estate of the late Gov. Samuel J. Tilden to recover pay for his services as Mr. Tilden's physician. The modest sum of $143,000 is the value at which he estimates those services. Only the lump sum without particulars is given. The executors ask a bill of particulars, and the matter is now in the courts. The Tilden physician lives in a magnificent brownstone at the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Lexington avenue, and has one of the most lucrative practices in that medical neighborhood. He put in his bill once before for the same amount. It is estimated that Dr. Simmons must have visited Tilden every day at $100 a visit for four years, giving him the benefit of a leap year every twelve months.

THE most important result of the recent election in Rhode Island is the adoption of the suffrage amendment to the Constitution. This places foreign born naturalized citizens on an equality with native born as regards the right to vote.

THERE is such a thing as carrying show enterprise too far. An aeronaut found it so at a Pennsylvania town not long ago. In order to add interest and excitement to the exhibition he advertised that a couple would be married while in the balloon at as high an elevation as it was possible to attain. A rustic swain and his intended bride were engaged for the exhibition, but at the last moment they backed out. Rather than disappoint the public, the aeronaut decided to offer himself as a sacrifice upon the matrimonial altar, and he induced a young lady who was traveling with the show to become the party of the second part, with the understanding that the marriage was a farce for revenue only from the gate receipts. They afterward discovered that the mock marriage was binding not only up in the clouds but on terra firma. And now they are in the courts endeavoring to have the marriage set aside.

CAPT. SAMUEL MUMFORD, of Southport, Conn., owns a fine gray parrot, which harbors a perpetual hatred of hens, and the Captain occasionally lets Polly out of her cage to see the fun. A lot of barnyard fowls are allowed to run at large on his place, and Polly always starts at once to hunt a hen. Polly's style of warfare is nipping the chickens' legs with her sharp beak until they dance a hornpipe. This performance causes Polly to go into hysterics of delight, and she screams in a hideous fashion. The other day the rooster in command met Polly in single combat. Polly received enough punishment in two rounds, and she retired with her head pecked and her feathers rumpled. Patrick, the hired man about the place, now accompanies Polly in her outing, and when Polly sees the rooster she scuttles up to Patrick, screeching: "Oh, Patrick; oh, Patrick." Patrick lifts Polly in his arms, and from that safe refuge Polly glares in angry silence at her enemy.

THE price of illuminating gas is declining very generally all over the country, especially where the gas works are under municipal control. Chicago recently resolved on dollar gas. Wheeling, W. Va. owns its works and supplies its consumers at 90 cents per 1,000 feet. Richmond, Va., has owned and operated its gas works since Feb. 22, 1851, with satisfactory results—furnishing lights free for streets and public buildings, paying all expenses for manufacture and leaving besides almost enough to pay 6 per cent. on the whole cost of the original plant and subsequent additions. The price of gas to private consumers has been reduced from $4, in 1851, to $1.50. In Philadelphia the price has come down to $1.60. The experience of English and German cities is that municipal gas manufacture uniformly results in better and cheaper gas. In England gas is now made at a net cost of 30 cents per 1,000 feet; in New England some companies put it in the holder for 38 cents, from the same coal as is used in Philadelphia. The London companies sell gas at 65 cents per 1,000 feet, and still make 12 and 13 per cent. dividends. Nottingham acquired its gas works in 1875, when gas was at 83 cents, and in eight years reduced the price to 54 cents, and at the same time increasing their annual profits from $25,000 to $165,000. Gas cost the people of Leicester 70 cents in 1878, when the city acquired the works at a cost of $3,175,000; they paid 58 cents in 1885, after having received in their corporate capacity $775,000, of which sum $605,000 had gone to lightening taxes.

LIZZIE ZINK, a 10-year-old girl of Mount Joy, Lancaster County, Pa., was discovered to be in a comatose condition while at school. When she entered the schoolroom she told a playmate that an old woman had been following her, and was coming in through the keyhole. The child, with her eyes tightly closed, cried loudly, "Gey weck," the Pennsylvania Dutch for "go away." When requested to open her eyes she said the old woman was holding them shut with her fingers. Figures were placed on the blackboard, and, notwithstanding the fact that the girl's eyes were closed, she readily named all of them correctly. With the same precision she repeated words which were written upon the blackboard by the teacher. All questions were answered without hesitancy. Letters and figures were written on the floor with chalk at different points, and, to the utter amazement of those present, the girl told in every instance both their location and character. The water can, basin, bucket and the wearing apparel of other children in the school were in turn held above her head and behind her, and in every instance the nature of the article was announced without hesitancy. When Mr. Ober arrived she said she was glad to see him, though her eyes were closed at the time and no one had mentioned his name. She was taken home and remained in the same condition for six hours.

A Woman's Artful Ruse.

A very mature bride and her immature consort, while on their wedding trip, so the story goes, annoyed the rest of the passengers in the cars by the effusiveness of their devotion to each other. Besides this, the happy couple kept their window open a good deal, to the discomfort of their fellow travelers. At last a lady who sat behind—only a woman could have cut so unerringly and merciless into the weak spot of her soul—leaned over and said with the suavest smile: "Madam, will you kindly request your son to close the window? I fear I am taking cold." The window came down, and so did the spirits of the bride.

It is a Curious Fact

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

THE women Mayor and Councilmen who now rule the city of Oskaloosa, Kansas, were elected as the "Improvement Ticket," which was opposed by a "Retrenchment Ticket," composed entirely of men. The woman ticket beat the man ticket two to one. The Mayoress and the Aldermanesses, all of them, emphatically disavow any sympathy with the female suffragists.

In chronic diseases, medicines should be restoring, and not debilitating, in their action. The wonderful strengthening and curative effects, realized from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, sustain the reputation of this remedy as the most popular blood purifier.

HARRIET BEECHER STOWE is rapidly failing. Her memory grows more treacherous daily, and there are occasional intervals in which, it is said, her mind wanders. The authorized biography of Mrs. Stowe will be written by Mrs. Florine Thayer McCray, who lives close to Mrs. Stowe in Hartford.

SOME DOCTORS

honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Others say they can but—don't. Athlophoros says nothing but—cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 3, 1887.

In my own family Athlophoros was used as a last resort, the user having suffered from rheumatism for years and having been treated for the disease by different physicians in this State and Massachusetts without even temporary relief. Upon my recommendation scores of people have used this remedy with the same results claimed for it. C. H. WILSON.

SCORES OF DEMOCRATS

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indescribably miserable, both physically and mentally; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to directions for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complications multiply and Consumption of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts powerfully upon the Liver, and through that great blood-purifying organ, cleanses the system of all blood-taints and impurities, from whatever cause arising. It is equally efficacious in acting upon the Kidneys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it promotes digestion and nutrition, thereby building up both flesh and strength. In malarial districts, this wonderful medicine has gained great celebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large Treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a Treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength and bodily health will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "CONSUMPTION CURE," but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottles for $5.00.

Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Address,

Martyrs to Headache

Seek relief in vain, until they begin to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then they regret the years of suffering they might have escaped had they tried this remedy earlier. The trouble was constitutional not local; and, until Ayer's Sarsaparilla did its effective work as an Alterative and Blood Purifier, they were compelled to suffer.

The wife of Samuel Page, 21 Austin st., Lowell, Mass., was, for a long time, subject to severe headaches, the result of stomach and liver disorders. A perfect cure has been effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frank Roberts, 727 Washington st., Boston, says that he formerly had terrible headaches, and until he took Ayer's Sarsaparilla, never found any medicine that would give Permanent Relief.

"Every Spring, for years," writes Lizzie W. DeVeau, 262 Fifteenth st., Brooklyn, N. Y., "I have had intolerable headaches. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla last March, and have not had a headache since that time."

"I suffered from headache, indigestion, and debility, and was hardly able to drag myself about the house," writes Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of A st., Lowell, Mass. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has worked a marvelous change in my case. I now feel strong and well as ever."

Jonas Garman, Esq., of Lykins, Pa., writes: "For years I have suffered dreadfully, every Spring, from headache, caused by impurity of the blood and biliousness. It seemed for days and weeks that my head would split open. Nothing relieved me till I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured me completely."

When Mrs. Genevra Belanger, of 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass., began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, she had suffered for some years from a serious affection of the kidneys. Every Spring, also, she was afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. A friend persuaded her to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which benefited her wonderfully. Her health is now perfect. Martyrs to headache should try

Your committee on finance respectfully report:

1. We have examined the reports of the city clerk and treasurer and find they compare with the books of their respective offices, except a clerica error in the report of the city clerk. It should have read the bonded debt of the city, $749,000, in place of $744,000, which has been corrected.

REHORT OF COMMITTEE ON WATER WORKS.

We, your committee on water works, to whom was referred the report of the water works trustees for the month of April, 1888, respectfully report that we have the same and find the same to agree with the books in their respective offices.

2. And furthermore, we, your committee, fully agree with the views taken by the water works trustees in regard to completing the water works as near as possible in accordance with the plans originally voted for by the citizens. Also it being the wishes of the majority of our citizens to have the best and most sufficient water supply that can be obtained, and we fully believe from what we can hear from other cities that it would be well to investigate how other cities procure their supply of water by river or wells. We therefore recommend that the mayor appoint a committee of five members of the common council and the mayor, together with the trustees of the water works to visit such cities as Dayton, Hamilton and Carrolton, Ohio, and other cities if necessary, where tee Wagoner steam wells are in use, with a view of determining whether we, too, cannot be equally successful and the expense of said tour to be paid out of the water works fund.

3 We further recommend that the trustees be instructed to advertise for proposals for completing the reservoir according to the original plan.

4. In regard to the petition of D. S. Kennedy and others asking to have the water mains laid on Dewald street, from Calhoun to Webster street, we report in favor and recommend that the trustees make said extension as soon as the finances will permit.

I, therefore, recommend that an overcharge of $35 be given them if they file an affidavit with the city clerk showing that they had no credits on April 1, 1887.

"No, nor for foreign ones."

"In your reading you doubtless go deeper than the novel."

"Don't know that I do."

"I mean that you doubtless read history or books on philosophy."

"No, I don't do that."

"Ah, religiously inclined, and read theology I suppose?"

"No, I never read any theology."

"Lawer, eh? and confine yourself to your text-books."

"No."

"Well, now, I'll catch you after awhile. Read medical books, I suppose?"

"No, I don't read anything."

"What, don't read anything? What business are you in?"

MADE A MILLION AND DIED INSANE.

Nestor B. French, of Wichita, a properous farmer in a small way, made the discovery some eighteen years ago of a rich deposit of ore on land adjoining his own. Taking his brother into partnership they proceeded to develop the mine as far as their limited capital would permit. Denver mining capitalists learning of the richness of the deposit made careful inquiry and examination and finally bought the two brothers out, paying $250,000 for all rights. French's brother soon after died from exposure while crossing the mountains, and Nestor at once proceeded to Kansas City, where he began investing in real estate, and finally engaged in numerous money making businesses. He worked day and night at his various schemes, taking scarcely time to eat or sleep. His wealth increased rapidly but the more he got the more he wanted, and he labored even more zealously than formerly, sometimes laying awake all night pondering on and revolving new projects in his mind.

In April of last year symptoms of mental failure became apparent, and in less than six months Nestor B. French was in an insane asylum, where he died last Friday worth a million dollars."—Exchange.

"A Bunch of Keys" is a collection of incidents intended to teach no moral in particular, stirred together by Charles Hoyt; incited, aided and abetted by Willie Edouin. The piece is called a comedy, because comedy is the word used to describe almost everything put upon the stage at present and the authors desire to avoid the charge of eccentricity, having enough else to answer for. The people who risk their lives, limbs and reputation in presenting the piece and the characters they are alleged to assume may be learned by a careful study of the program, which is distributed free over the city.

The election takes place on Nov. 6 this year, and any young man otherwise qualified can vote that day if his birthday on which he calls himself twenty-one doesn't come till the day after, that is Nov. 7. It seems queer but it's a legal fact. The man whose birthday is the 7th becomes twenty-one at midnight after the 6th. The law recognizes no parts of days, and so, legally, if he is twenty-two at any time of the 6th, he is twenty-one all day of the 6th, and he can vote on that day. It is a matter that has been tested and demonstrated, and any young man reading this who thinks he will be twenty-one on the 7th because it is his birthday is hereby advised that he will be twenty-one on the 6th, and it is his duty and privilege to get himself made a voter in due season.

The many friends of Preston Chapman, of Pleasant township, announce his name, with pleasure, as a candidate for sheriff of Allen county, subject to the decision of the democratic convention, of June 26. Mr. Chapman is a farmer and was born and raised in this county, and stands high among his neighbors and acquaintances. His political record is that of an earnest, active and thorough democrat of the Jackson and Cleveland type, ever loyal to the principles and organization of the democratic party. He is a gentleman in the true sense of the word—pleasant with every one he meets; intelligent, honorable and strictly honest in all the relations of life. His qualifications for the office of sheriff are first-class, and no man voting for him will ever have cause to regret it. If nominated and elected he will serve the people acceptably and do honor to the office.

Death of Charles Hoover.

Mr. Charles Hoover, aged thirty-one, who was employed at Brown's sample room, on West Berry street, died last night of liver complaint. He leaves a wife, but no children. The remains will be taken to Richmond, Ind., for burial.

Yesterday, Drs. Woodworth and Myers were called in and discovered an abcess of the liver, involving the pleura, with hepatization of the entire right lung. The abcess was opened, with little prospect of success in saving his life, his temperature being then sub-normal. The operation was followed by the discharge of the highly offensive pus to the amount of about four pints.

It is perhaps only just to state that the operation was not the cause of his death, as stated, but if it had been done weeks ago would have saved his life.

Frank Mannix, formerly of the Pittsburg works, has taken a position as machinist at the Bass works. Frank is a splendid mechanic and will be a valuable man at the Bass works. He was very popular among the employes of the Pittsburg and he will prove equally so at the Bass works.

One of the boys in the Pittsburg shops gives this history of A. H. Hamilton's 2:27 Texas pony: "It was born and bred in Oregon and at an early age was shipped to Kansas and afterwards found its way to this city, consequently the claim of its owner that it is a Texan is disproven by its history. It is a high kicker and a high stepper and this fact prevents it from being flea ridden. No flea on earth could rest on its hide for half a second and A. H. knows it, but still he persists that it is a Texan. With all its faults, however, it is kind and gentle and really has the making of a 'fast flyer.' It can beat the high steppers of T. J. Rodabaugh, F. W. Dunham or Captain Boltz and is really a remarkable animal. A. H. ought to be proud of it."

The ladies of the City Y. M. C. A. will meet in the parlors of the new building to-morrow afternoon, May 25th, at 3 o'clock. A business meeting of importance will be held and all ladies in the city interested in this work are cordially invited to meet with them.

The Commerce of Chili.

Wheat has, for the last seventy-five years, been one of the main staple products of Chili, and when forty years ago gold was discovered in California, Chilian steam-ground flour was the first consumed in the mines, remaining the staff of life till in 1854; the first steam four mills were started in the new State, and subsequently the latter became even a greater wheat-producer than Chili. The only flour which Chili had to compete with during the pioneer times of the Golden State was Richmond, Va., flour, the favorite brands of which in the mines were at the time "Gallego" and "Haxall." Chili, during six or eight years, from 1849 to 1857, became rich through its California traffic; the flour, barley, Chili beans and dried peaches in cakes consigned from Valparaiso to San Francisco left big fortunes to Chilian consignors, the flour separately bringing as much as $20 per bag of 200 pounds, Spanish, on the dock at San Francisco, and other goods in proportion. After the California market was lost, Australia, where gold was discovered in 1853, became a mine for Chilian wheat, etc., growers and millers, nearly as rich, and continued giving splendid returns even longer. Subsequently the Cape of Good Hope was added, and Chilian flour was besides shipped to Peru, Ecuador, the La Plata States and Brazil, even to the Pacific coast of Mexico and Central America. The Chilian wheat is of as good quality as California, and the flour not inferior to Baltimore. The only wonder is that as a wheat producer, Chili has since then not become as important a country as California. Now Chilian wheat finds its way chiefly to Europe, where it commands the top of the market. At any rate the productive capacity of the Republic in this line is very great, and may be pushed to a greater development at any time in the future unless prices should decline so much in the world's markets that it cannot stand the fraight from Valparaiso to Liverpool.

Chili is one of the most interesting countries of South America, inasmuch as it is not only a great cereal-producing country, but turns out some 35,000 tons of copper, now leaving big profits to the mining interests down there, and an almost unlimited amount of nitrate of soda, which is consumed abroad as manure. Chili also possesses tolerably rich silver mines. The Republic is moreover famous for its uninterrupted civil tranquility, being the only Spanish-American country where revolutions are a thing unknown. Chili covers an area of 753,216 square kilometers, and has a population of 2,000,000; the climate is mild and healthy throughout; the only drawback is frequent earthquakes. The indebtedness on April 30, 1887, was $83,491,326. The budget for 1887 fixed the income estimate at $48,000,000, and the outlay at $34,097,323. The only disturbing element in finance is the paper money, of which there is about $20,000,000 circulated, but it is gradually being redeemed. The strength of the permanent army is 6,547 men, and there is besides a national guard numbering 48,854 men. The navy consists of eighteen armored vessels, with together seventy-five guns, 17,080 ton capacity, 4,550 horse power, and manned by 1,988 sailors. The merchant marine consisted in 1886 of 173 vessels, of a joint capacity of 77,285 tons, including 37 steamers, of 18,528 tons.—The Millstone.

DR. NEWMAN CHOSEN

The Brilliant Pastor of the Capital City is Elected as One of the M. E. Church Bishops.

New York, May 24.—When Bishop Foster called the general Methodist conference to order all the delegates were in their places for about the first time since the opening day. The tenth ballot resulted in no election. There were 435 votes cast and 290 was necessary for a choice. Dr. Newman received 274, Goodsell 267 and Cranston 216.

The result had hardly been announced by the chair, when Dr. Bayless jumped up and offered a resolution in the interest of a fair count. He suggested that when a conference was called the delegates should rise and pass their votes to the teller who should then declare the number of votes cast, of which an accurate tally should be kept.

The conference would hear to no such thing. They were all honest men and did not feel inclined to submit to any such indignity. The eleventh ballot resulted in no choice.

On the fourteenth ballot Newman was elected.

DR. GOODSELL ELECTED.

On the sixteenth ballot Dr. Goodsell was elected bishop by a vote of 320 out of 430.

The question as to the advisability of appointing a missionary bishop for India was under discussion when the tellers returned and announced Dr. Newman's election.

While the tellers were counting the next ballot much discussion was occasioned by a motion providing for the declaring of all the seats of the bishops-elect vacant, and inviting them to seats on the platform, which was finally passed.

TOOK TO THE WOODS.

An Almost Successful Attempt to Play the Gold Brick Racket Foiled by a Bank Cashier.

Portland, Ind., May 24.—An effort to work the old threadbare gold brick racket on Wm. Newton, a wealthy farmer and fourth vice-president of the People's bank, was brought to almost a successful issue yesterday. Newton resides alone on his farm, a mile and a half north-west of this place. About a week ago a young man introduced himself to Newton and said he was in search of a man whose son had murdered a man, and having fled to the west entered the mining business, has been successful, returned to the east and had buried three gold bricks on his (Newton's) farm.

No such person was found here, and it was suggested he telegraph to Portland, Fountain county, and last Saturday the much-looked-for individual, a man past fifty years of age, arrived. A letter purporting to be from son to father was handed the old man, and it described minutely where the treasure was buried on Newton's farm, with a diagram describing where to dig for the gold. The three repaired to the spot. Newton was directed to thrust an iron rod into the earth and it struck a hard substance which, when unearthed, was yellow metal. Three bricks, weighing about thirty-two pounds each, were taken out. It was decided to drill into them, take the drillings to Fort Wayne, where, as they said, was a government official who would make the test.

Yesterday they took Newton to Fort Wayne with them and a third accomplice made the test and pronounced the three bricks worth $32,000, and for a small consideration would agree to turn them over to the government for that amount. The three returned from Fort Wayne last night and the old man agreed to take Newton in if he could furnish $4,000. Newton came to town this morning and went to the bank to draw out the amount. Cashier Walt Haynes, thinking something was wrong, asked Newton what he was going to do with the money, but he declined telling and the cashier persistently refused to let him have the money unless he would tell him what use he was to make of it.

Newton then unburdened himself, and was advised to take the sheriff with him and arrest the swindlers. This Newton refused to do. Haynes started Newton home, and slipped around and gave the sheriff the tip, and repaired to the old man's farm. The rogues saw them approaching the house, and took to the woods, leaving their $32,000 worth of brass and zinc, two overcoats and a valise behind. A more bungleome attempt at arrest could not be imagined, and the fellows are still at large.

Sought the Eternal Rest.

Goshen, Ind., May 24.—This morning a peculiar, but tragic, suicide occurred at Napanee, near here. After her husband had gone to work, Mrs. George Reed, probably in a temporary fit of insanity, took her three months old babe in her arms and with it leaped into the well, drowning instantly. She left and affectionate note in which she said that she was tired of life in this world and desired rest. She was but twenty-three years old.

Horse Stolen.

Decatur, Ind., May 24.—A fine horse belonging to Barney Terveer, of this city, was stolen from his stable. The thief scoured the horse by breaking the lock on the stable door. No trace of the thief or property. The horse was valued at $200.

CENTENNIAL DAY!

The Two General Presbyterian Assemblies Unite in Imposing Centennial Day Exercises at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 24—This was the centennial day of the Presbyterian church and the members of the two general assemblies united in great mass meetings in the Academy of Music and the Horticultural hall. The ceremonies began in both buildings at 10 o'clock this morning and the crowds in attendance at both were enormous.

In the Academy of Music Rev. J. J. Bullock, D. D., moderator of the southern general assembly, presided. The audience was apparently made up in equal proportion from representatives of the two assemblies.

Dr. Bullock made a brief, but eloquent address, cordially reciprocated the fraternal sentiments of the brethren from the north and said that whatever might be the final disposition of organic union, there was no feeling of alienation or want of faith on the doctrines of their sister assembly. There was no obstacle that he knew to fraternity or fellowship.

Rev. Dr. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, spoke an hour on "History of Presbyterianism."

"The Work of Presbyterianism for Future" was the subject of an address by Rev. Benjamin M. Palmer, D. D., of New Orleans.

A great audience also crowded Horticultural hall, adjoining the Academy, and here too, there was the same commingling of the Northern assembly and the Southern branch.

Rev. Dr. Charles L. Thompson, of Kansas City, moderator of the northern assembly, was in the chair. He introduced Congressman Wm. C. P. Breckenridge, of Lexington, Ky., who spoke on "Calvinism and Religious Liberty." His references to church union were received with extreme warmth. Rev. Howard Crosby, D. D., followed with an address on "Presbyterianism and Biblical Scholarship."

President Cleveland addressed the Presbyterian general assemblies, north and south, yesterday morning and in the afternoon, with Mrs. Cleveland, was tendered a reception.

Illinois Democrats.

Springfield, May 24.—The democrats, at their state convention yesterday, nominated Hon. John Palmer for governor, A. J. Bell for lieutenant governor, N. D. Hicks for secretary of state, Andrew Walsh for auditor, Chas. H. Wacker for treasurer and J. R. Creighton for attorney general.

Chicago, May 24.—Charles H. Whaeker, nominated by the democratic convention at Springfield yesterday for state treasurer is the senior member of a prominent brewing firm of this city. He is reported to be very wealthy. He declared his intention of refusing the nomination saying he is not a politician and does not wish to become one. His business absorbs all his time.

Pickpockets at North Manchester.

Wabash, Ind., May 24.—Pickpockets are taking advantage of the immense crowds at the great Dunkard meeting, near North Manchester. Several Chicago and Fort Wayne "crooks" are on hand, and are working the Dunkards. Several robberies have been reported today. John P. Ebersole, of Tiffin, O., one of the oldest preachers in the church, was about to board a train for Indianapolis when he was roughly seized, his hat tipped over his eyes, and in an instant his pocket book, containing about $20 and several railroad passes, was missing. Another man, whose name could not be learned, was relieved of $700.

An Immense Oil Gusher.

Lima, O., May 24.—The biggest oil well yet struck in the Lima field was drilled in last night on the Ducat farm, near North Baltimore. The oil flows over the derrick in a solid eight-inch stream, and although nearly twenty-four hours old shows no signs of abatement. It is estimated that fully 5,000 barrels have already been lost, there being no means of saving the oil.

Short $3,700.

Chicago, May 24.—It is officially stated that the shortage in the accounts of E. B. Bradley, margin clerk of the Union National bank, is $3,700. It is believed his whereabouts are known and he will soon be in custody.

An Army in Jail.

Kalamazoo, May 24.—The entire Salvation army of this city was jailed last evening for blockading the streets. The leaders defied the authorities to arrest them and said the Lord would protect them.

Failures.

Chicago, May 24—Zachariah Squires, saddlery and hardware merchant, made a voluntary assignment to Mortimer McCroberts. Assets, $23,000; liabilities, $20,000.

Washington, May 24.—Indiana: Slightly cooler, followed by warmer, fair weather.

General Sheridan.

Washington, May 24.—General Sheridan continues to improve steadily.

KANSAS TORNADO.

It Passes Near the Town of Wellington and Spreads Ruin in Its Wake.

Wellington, May 24—A tornado passed through Argonia, near this city, about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, cutting a wide swath through the thickest portion of the settlement.

Among the buildings destroyed are the Methodist church, Palace hotel and a considerable number of stores and dwellings. No fatalities are reported, but several were injured.

ITS DESTRUCTION IN TEXAS.

Comsicana, Texas, May 24.—One of the worst storms that ever visited this section occurred last night. It began at eleven and continued half an hour. The damage to business and resident property exceeded $25,000. The damage to crops cannot be estimated, but is very great. Over a dozen buildings were unroofed. About a dozen small houses were demolished. No lives were lost. The colored Methodist church and Odd Fellows hall were blown to pieces.

The Paulding Reservoir to be Sold.

Columbus, May 24.—The canal commissioners held a session this afternoon at the state house. They have officially notified the board of public works and the sinking fund commissioners that they had decided to sell the lands in the Paulding county reservoir. The sinking fund commissioners, upon whom the duty develops of fixing the terms, held a meeting and decided that the sales should be one-fifth down and the balance in four equal payments, with 6 per cent. interest.

He Wants $2,500.

Peru, Ind., May 24.—Oliver Dyer has begun suit to recover $2,500 against Miami lodge, I. O. O. F. He claims over six years' sick benefits from the lodge and the encampment, based upon the fact of partial disability from rheumatism. The lodge officials say that his disability has never been such as to place him upon the permanent sick-roll.

How to Remember Everything.

We mean it in its exact literalism; and better than the mere statement we can give the name and address of the discoverer of this wonderful method. Preacher, if you would remember your sermon; doctor, if you care to recollect the needed data of your profession—everybody who would remember everything—write for particulars to Prof. A. What Is in a Ton of Coal.

A careful estimate made by an English chemist of the contents or constituents of a ton of coal presents some interesting facts not familiar certainly to unscientific minds. It is found that besides gas, a ton of ordinary gas coal will yield 1,500 pounds of coke, 20 gallons of ammonia water, and 140 pounds of coal tar. Now, destructive distillation of this amount of coal tar gives about 70 pounds of pitch, 17 pounds of creosote, 14 pounds of heavy oils, about 9½ pounds of naphtha yellow, 6.3 pounds of naphthaline, 4½ pounds naphthol, 2½ pounds alizarine, 2.4 pounds of solvent naphtha, 1.5 pounds of phenol, 1.2 pounds of aurine, 1.1 pounds of analine, 0.79 pound of iodoldide, 0.40 pound of anthracine, and 0.9 pound of toluene—from the last-named substance being obtained the new product, saccharine, said to be 280 times as sweet as the best cane sugar. Germantown Telegraph.

A ROYAL MARRIAGE.

Prince Henry, the Son of Emperor Frederick, and Princess Irene Are Married at Berlin To-day.

Berlin, May 24—The marriage ceremony of Prince Henry, the second son of Emperor Frederick and Princess Irene, third daughter of Grand Duke Ludwig, of Hesse, was solemnized in the chapel of Charlottenburg castle today. All the bells at Charlottenburg were rung at noon to announce that the ceremony had commenced and a salute of thirty-six guns, fired at 12,30, announced that the bride and bridegroom had exchanged rings.

Both Emperor Frederick and the dowager Empress Augusta were present during the ceremony. Prince Henry and the crown prince were dressed in naval uniform. Thousands of people assembled outside the castle. The bride and groom are first cousins and are grand children of Queen Victoria.

The German government has issued a decree imposing strict regulations upon travelers entering Alsace Lorraine from France. Every person must have a passport revised by the German ambassador at Paris and foreigners neglecting this requirement will be prevented from continuing their journey, and very likely escorted back across the frontier. The only persons exempt from these restrictions are Germans arriving from France, and inhabitants of frontier districts entering Alsace-Lorraine on business, and even they must satisfy the frontier police that they are what they profess to be.

Second Sweet Girl (another convert)—Yes, that's what the minister said. You know, we promised to renounce the devil and all his works and lead better lives. I wonder what that meant?

"I'm sure I don't know. We've got to renounce something, that's sure. We've been doing something awfully wicked, I suppose. I wonder what it is?"

Dr. Magers Waylaid.

Columbia City Post.

One night last week as Dr. Magers was returning to his home in Churubusco, from a visit to a patient in the country, he was waylaid and struck such a blow on the back of the head that he fell from his buggy to the ground in a senseless condition. When he recovered consciousness he was two miles from town. A couple of neighbors brought him home, and upon examination an ugly scalp wound was discovered. His team arrived home about 11 o'clock in safety. The object of the assault is not known, as the doctor's watch and money were not disturbed.

Becoming a Favorite Son.

Columbia City Post.

It begins to look like Whitley county—that is, the congressional nomination will most probably fall to the Hon. W. F. McNagny, of this city. Whitley county has had very little recognition in the past and to give her the candidate for congress would be an honor to which the county is justly entitled. Mr. McNagny is a fine orator and a good canvasser and would carry the district by an immense majority.

EX-GOV. SAMUEL T. HAUSER of Montana is said to be one of the jolliest politicians and millionaires in Washington. His life reads like a romance. Many years ago he started out a poor boy, with nothing but pluck, energy, and a well-balanced mind. Like Pizarro, he dreamed that there was an El Dorado, and he found it in Montana. There were few in the Territory that could throw the lasso, ride, and shoot better than cool-headed, daring young [illegible]

It is said that Senator Bowen owes his wealth to a game of poker. Ten years ago he raised an opponent on a pair of deuces, bluffed him successfully, and won $100. He handed his winnings to a needy prospector for a grub stake. The needy prospector struck pay dirt, and in a few months Senator Bowen was the owner of the Little Annie and Golconda mines. These mines have yielded as high as $10,000 a day, clear cash. The ore in sight is worth nearly two and a half million dollars.

THE Philadelphia Board of Health fined a physician $20 for not reporting two cases of leprosy under his charge—regarding it as a contagious disease. There is just as much reason for compelling physicians to report cases of phthisis and cancer. In the Lancet, Dr. Richard Budd has given several illustrations of the contagiousness of cancer. One case he cites was that of a young woman of nineteen who attended an elderly woman with cancer, and, in spite of the physicians' protests, she washed out rags which were saturated with the discharges of the cancerous part. Six months after the old lady died, the younger woman exhibited cancerous tumors and speedily died of the disease.

JOSHUA JONES, who died a short time ago, worth $7,000,000, lived for many years at a New York hotel, and, although he made large bequests to servants, as may be seen by his published will, they were not his own servants, but those of his brother and sister, who died some time before. He kept up their two establishments, one of which was in the city and the other on Staten Island, as if he expected them to return, and left the servants with directions to have everything kept in as complete order as if the former occupants were in existence. Indeed, for a long time after the death of these two relatives he ordered that their plates should be laid at table, apparently believing that if their bodily selves did not return to occupy these vacant seats, their spirits, hovering about, would be glad to note his continued affectionate interest in them.

THE New York World Almanac for 1888 says that New York State permits polygamy and polyandry in certain cases. Desertion for five years, without knowledge that the deserter is living, permits the deserted one to marry again, and the second marriage is valid though the deserter returns. If all parties are satisfied, one husband may live in lawful wedlock with two or more wives, and one wife with two or more husbands. The children will inherit, and both wives are subject to dower. The law also provides that every marriage legal where contracted is valid here, and that a divorce obtained in another State is not valid in New York, unless both parties were under the jurisdiction of the court granting it. Under such rules a man may become, in the eyes of the law, the husband of many wives.

DR. CHARLES E. SIMMONS of New York, has brought suit against the executors of the estate of the late Gov. Samuel J. Tilden to recover pay for his services as Mr. Tilden's physician. The modest sum of $143,000 is the value at which he estimates these services. Only the lump sum without particulars is given. The executors ask a bill of particulars, and the matter is now in the courts. The Tilden physician lives in a magnificent brownstone at the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Lexington avenue, and has one of the most lucrative practices in that medical neighborhood. He put in his bill once before for the same amount. It is estimated that Dr. Simmons must have visited Tilden every day at $100 a visit for four years, giving him the benefit of a leap year every twelve months.

THE most important result of the recent election in Rhode Island is the adoption of the suffrage amendment to the Constitution. This places foreign born naturalized citizens on an equality with native born as regards the right to vote.

THERE is such a thing as carrying show enterprise too far. An aeronaut found it so at a Pennsylvania town not long ago. In order to add interest and excitement to the exhibition he advertised that a couple would be married while in the balloon at as high an elevation as it was possible to attain. A rustic swain and his intended bride were engaged for the exhibition, but at the last moment they backed out. Rather than disappoint the public, the aeronaut decided to offer himself as a sacrifice upon the matrimonial altar, and he induced a young lady who was traveling with the show to become the party of the second part, with the understanding that the marriage was a farce for revenue only from the gate receipts. They afterward discovered that the mock marriage was binding not only up in the clouds but on terra firma. And now they are in the courts endeavoring to have the marriage set aside.

CAPT. SAMUEL MUNFORD, of Southport, Conn., owns a fine gray parrot, which harbors a perpetual hatred of hens, and the Captain occasionally lets Polly out of her cage to see the fun. A lot of barnyard fowls are allowed to run at large on his place, and Polly always starts at once to hunt a hen. Polly's style of warfare is nipping the chickens' legs with her sharp beak until they dance a hornpipe. This performance causes Polly to go into hysterics of delight, and she screams in a hideous fashion. The other day the rooster in command met Polly in single combat. Polly received enough punishment in two rounds, and she retired with her head pecked and her feathers rumpled. Patrick, the hired man about the place, now accompanies Polly in her outing, and when Polly sees the rooster she scuttles up to Patrick, screeching: "Oh, Patrick; oh, Patrick." Patrick lifts Polly in his arms, and from that safe refuge Polly glares in angry silence at her enemy.

THE price of illuminating gas is declining very generally all over the country, especially where the gas works are under municipal control. Chicago recently resolved on dollar gas. Wheeling, W. Va. owns its works and supplies its consumers at 90 cents per 1,000 feet. Richmond, Va., has owned and operated its gas works since Feb. 22, 1851, with satisfactory results—furnishing lights free for streets and public buildings, paying all expenses for manufacture and leaving besides almost enough to pay 6 per cent. on the whole cost of the original plant and subsequent additions. The price of gas to private consumers has been reduced from $4, in 1851, to $1.50. In Philadelphia the price has come down to $1.60. The experience of English and German cities is that municipal gas manufacture uniformly results in better and cheaper gas. In England gas is now made at a net cost of 80 cents per 1,000 feet; in New England some companies put it in the holder for 88 cents, from the same coal as is used in Philadelphia. The London companies sell gas at 65 cents per 1,000 feet, and still make 12 and 13 per cent. dividends. Nottingham acquired its gas works in 1875, when gas was at 83 cents, and in eight years reduced the price to 54 cents, and at the same time increasing their annual profits from $25,000 to $165,000. Gas cost the people of Leicester, 70 cents in 1878, when the city acquired the works at a cost of $3,175,000; they paid 58 cents in 1885, after having received in their corporate capacity $775,000, of which sum $605,000 had gone to lightening taxes.

LIZZIE ZENK, a 10-year-old girl of Mount Joy, Lancaster County, Pa., was discovered to be in a comatose condition while at school. When she entered the schoolroom she told a playmate that an old woman had been following her, and was coming in through the keyhole. The child, with her eyes tightly closed, cried loudly, "Gey weck," the Pennsylvania Dutch for "go away." When requested to open her eyes she said the old woman was holding them shut with her fingers. Figures were placed on the blackboard, and, notwithstanding the fact that the girl's eyes were closed, she readily named all of them correctly. With the same precision she repeated words which were written upon the blackboard by the teacher. All questions were answered without hesitancy. Letters and figures were written on the floor with chalk at different points, and, to the utter amazement of those present, the girl told in every instance both their location and character. The water can, basin, bucket and the wearing apparel of other children in the school were in turn held above her head and behind her, and in every instance the nature of the article was announced without hesitancy. When Mr. Ober arrived she said she was glad to see him, though her eyes were closed at the time and no one had mentioned his name. She was taken home and remained in the same condition for six hours.

A Woman's Artful Ruse.

A very mature bride and her immature consort, while on their wedding trip, so the story goes, annoyed the rest of the passengers in the cars by the effusiveness of their devotion to each other. Besides this, the happy couple kept their window open a good deal, to the discomfort of their fellow travelers. At last a lady who sat behind—only a woman could have cut so unerringly and merciless into the weak spot of her soul—leaned over and said with the suavest smile: "Madam, will you kindly request your son to close the window? I fear I am taking cold." The window came down, and so did the spirits of the bride.

It is a Curious Fact

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

THE women Mayor and Councilmen who now rule the city of Oskaloosa, Kansas, were elected as the "Improvement Ticket," which was opposed by a "Retrenchment Ticket," composed entirely of men. The woman ticket beat the man ticket two to one. The Mayoress and the Aldermanesses, all of them, emphatically disavow any sympathy with the female suffragists.

In chronic diseases, medicines should be restoring, and not debilitating, in their action. The wonderful strengthening and curative effects, realised from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, sustain the reputation of this remedy as the most popular blood purifier.

HARRIET BEECHER STOWE is rapidly failing. Her memory grows more treacherous daily, and there are occasional intervals in which, it is said, her mind wanders. The authorized biography of Mrs. Stowe will be written by Mrs. Florine Thayer McCray, who lives close to Mrs. Stowe in Hartford.

honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Others say they can but—don't. Athlophoros says nothing but—cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 2, 1887.
In my own family Athlophoros was used as a last resort, the user having suffered from rheumatism for years and having been treated for the disease by different physicians in this State and Massachusetts without even temporary relief. Upon my recommendation scores of people have used this remedy with the same results claimed for it. C. H. WILSON.

SCORES OF DEMOCRATS

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indescribably miserable, both physically and mentally; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to directions, for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complicated with Consumption of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts powerfully upon the Liver, and through that great blood-purifying organ, cleanses the system of all blood-taints and impurities, from whatever cause arising. It is equally efficacious in acting upon the Kidneys and other excretory organs, cleansing, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it promotes digestion and nutrition, thereby building up both flesh and strength. In malarial districts, this wonderful medicine has gained great celebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and Indeed Diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Pimples, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large Treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a Treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength and bodily health will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure;" but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottles for $5.00.

Martyrs to Headache

Seek relief in vain, until they begin to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then they regret the years of suffering they might have escaped had they tried this remedy earlier. The trouble was constitutional not local; and, until Ayer's Sarsaparilla did its effective work as an Alterative and Blood Purifier, they were compelled to suffer.

The wife of Samuel Page, 21 Austin st., Lowell, Mass., was, for a long time, subject to severe headaches, the result of stomach and liver disorders. A perfect cure has been effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frank Roberts, 727 Washington st., Boston, says that he formerly had terrible headaches, and until he took Ayer's Sarsaparilla, never found any medicine that would give Permanent Relief.

"Every Spring, for years," writes Lizzie W. DeVeau, 282 Fifteenth st., Brooklyn, N. Y., "I have had intolerable headaches. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla last March, and have not had a headache since that time."

"I suffered from headache, indigestion, and debility, and was hardly able to drag myself about the house," writes Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of A st., Lowell, Mass. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has worked a marvelous change in my case. I now feel strong and well as ever."

Jonas Garman, Esq., of Lykins, Pa., writes: "For years I have suffered dreadfully, every Spring, from headache, caused by impurity of the blood and biliousness. It seemed for days and weeks that my head would split open. Nothing relieved me till I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured me completely."

When Mrs. Genevra Belanger, of 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass., began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, she had suffered for some years from a serious affection of the kidneys. Every Spring, also, she was afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. A friend persuaded her to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which benefited her wonderfully. Her health is now perfect. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your committee on finance respectfully report:

1. We have examined the reports of the city clerk and treasurer and find they compare with the books of their respective offices, except a clerical error in the report of the city clerk. It should have read the bonded debt of the city, $760,000, in place of $764,000, which has been corrected.

2. We also find the report of the weighmaster correct.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WATER WORKS.

We, your committee on water works, to whom was referred the report of the water works trustees for the month of April, 1888, respectfully report that we have the same and find the same to agree with the books in their respective offices.

2. And furthermore, we, your committee, fully agree with the views taken by the water works trustees in regard to completing the water works as near as possible in accordance with the plans originally voted for by the citizens. Also it being the wishes of the majority of the citizens to have the best and most sufficient water supply that can be obtained, and we fully believe from what we can hear from other cities that it would be well to investigate how other cities procure their supply of water by river or wells. We therefore recommend that the mayor appoint a committee of five members of the common council and the mayor, together with the trustees of the water works to visit such cities as Dayton, Hamilton and Carrollton, Ohio, and other cities if necessary, where two Worcester steam wells are in use, with a view of determining whether we, too, cannot be equally successful and the expense of said tour to be paid out of the water works fund.

3. We further recommend that the trustees be instructed to advertise for proposals for completing the reservoir according to the original plan.

4. In regard to the petition of D. S. Kennedy and others asking to have the water mains laid on Dewald street, from Calhoun to Webster street, we report in favor and recommend that the trustees make said extension as soon as the finances will permit.

Well Equipped.

Two men were sitting on the same seat in a railway train. The conversation drifted from blizzards into general literature.

"I see," said one of the men, "that you do not care much for American novelists."

"No, nor for foreign ones."

"In your reading you doubtless go deeper than the novel."

"Don't know that I do."

"I mean that you doubtless read history or books on philosophy."

"No, I don't do that."

"Ah, religiously inclined, and read theology I suppose?"

"No, I never read any theology."

"Lawor, oh? and confine yourself to your text-books."

"No."

"Well, now, I'll catch you after awhile. Read medical books, I suppose?"

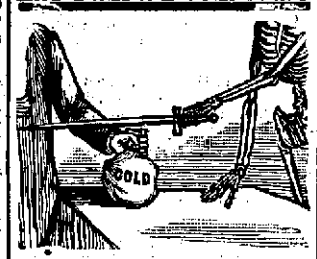
"No, I don't read anything."

"What, don't read anything? What business are you in?"

"A business that does not require reading. I am a literary critic on an eastern magazine."—Arkansaw Traveler.

"The Road to Ruin."

MADE A MILLION AND DIED INSANE.



Nestor B. French, of Wichita, a prosperous farmer in a small way, made the discovery some eighteen years ago of a rich deposit of ore on land adjoining his own. Taking his brother into partnership they proceeded to develop the mine as far as their limited capital would permit. Denver mining capitalists learning of the richness of the deposit made careful inquiry and examination and finally bought the two brothers out, paying $250,000 for all rights. French's brother soon after died from exposure while crossing the mountains, and Nestor at once proceeded to Kansas City, where he began investing in real estate, and finally engaged in numerous money making businesses. He worked day and night at his various schemes, taking scarcely time to eat or sleep. His wealth increased rapidly but the more he got the more he wanted, and he labored even more zealously than formerly, sometimes laying awake all night pondering on and revolving new projects in his mind.

In April of last year symptoms of mental failure became apparent, and in less than six months Nestor B. French was in an insane asylum, where he died last Friday worth a million dollars."—Exchange.

"What profiteth it a man though he gain the whole world if he lose his soul?"

The mind is really the soul, life or essence of the body, and this text may have had a double meaning.

Thousands are laboring madly and impetuously along the same road. Behind them poverty, before them labor, study, scheming. Beyond them, almost staring them in the face, the Insane asylum or the grave.

The section gangs of Joseph Lowery, Pat Ward and William Moran have just completed the laying of nine miles of new steel rails on the Wabash track west of the city. The new rail is sixty-three pounds to the yard and will make one of the best pieces of track on the Wabash road.

The revised enumeration in the Second ward increases the school enumeration 200 in that precinct. It is fair to presume that the recent new enumerators were scrupulously careful. As it is now, Fort Wayne falls to fourth city in the school enumeration calendar, a fact that tells us the new enumeration is too low.

The Melville sisters presented the ever popular drama, "The Two Orphans," to a crowded house at the Temple last night. The costumes were fine and the performances pleased the audience. The company is becoming more popular every night. To-night they play "May Blossom."

"A Bunch of Keys" is a collection of incidents intended to teach no moral in particular, stirred together by Charles Hoyt; incited, aided and abetted by Willie Edouin. The piece is called a comedy, because comedy is the word used to describe almost everything put upon the stage at present and the authors desire to avoid the charge of eccentricity, having enough else to answer for. The people who risk their lives, limbs and reputation in presenting the piece and the characters they are alleged to assume may be learned by a careful study of the program, which is distributed free over the city.

The election takes place on Nov. 6 this year, and any young man otherwise qualified can vote that day if his birthday on which he calls himself twenty-one doesn't come till the day after, that is Nov. 7. It seems queer but it's a legal fact. The man whose birthday is the 7th becomes twenty-one at midnight after the 6th. The law recognizes no parts of days, and so, legally, if he is twenty-two at any time of the 6th, he is twenty-one all day of the 6th, and he can vote on that day. It is a matter that has been tested and demonstrated, and any young man reading this who thinks he will be twenty-one on the 7th because it is his birthday is hereby advised that he will be twenty-one on the 6th and it is his duty and privilege to get himself made a voter in due season.

The many friends of Preston Chapman, of Pleasant township, announce his name, with pleasure, as a candidate for sheriff of Allen county, subject to the decision of the democratic convention, of June 26. Mr. Chapman is a farmer and was born and raised in this county, and stands high among his neighbors and acquaintances. His political record is that of an earnest, active and thorough democrat of the Jackson and Cleveland type, ever loyal to the principles and organization of the democratic party. He is a gentleman in the true sense of the word—pleasant with every one he meets; intelligent, honorable and strictly honest in all the relations of life. His qualifications for the office of sheriff are first-class, and no man voting for him will ever have cause to regret it. If nominated and elected he will serve the people acceptably and do honor to the office.

Death of Charles Hoover.

Mr. Charles Hoover, aged thirty-one, who was employed at Brown's sample room, on West Berry street, died last night of liver complaint. He leaves a wife, but no children. The remains will be taken to Richmond, Ind., for burial.

Yesterday, Drs. Woodworth and Myers were called in and discovered an abscess of the liver, involving the pleura, with hepatization of the entire right lung. The abscess was opened, with little prospect of success in saving his life, his temperature being then subnormal. The operation was followed by the discharge of the highly offensive pus to the amount of about four pints.

It is perhaps only just to state that the operation was not the cause of his death, as stated, but if it had been done weeks ago would have saved his life.

The Joint Senatorship.

Columbia City Post.

Hon. Mont Hamilton and Hon. Fred J. Hayden, of Fort Wayne, were in the city last Thursday. Mr. Hayden is a candidate for joint senator.

Col. I. B. McDonald has announced himself a candidate for joint senator for Allen and Whitley counties in the Fort Wayne papers. He has a competitor in the person of F. J. Hayden, of Fort Wayne. We understand the Whitley delegation will stand solid for the colonel.

FAVOR HOUSE.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

May Days Rain a Reporter's Brightest Hopes and Leave Him an Uninteresting Budget of News.

The freight men are kept busy.

The depots were very quiet this morning.

The pay days for the month are nearly over.

There are several railroad men on the sick list.

The new depot on the north side will be built.

A new $35,000 depot will be built at Grand Rapids.

The railroads are having a big western passenger business.

The trains are crowded now with through passengers.

The Lake Shore road paid off its employes to-day at this point.

The advertising car of P. T. Barnum's big circus was in the city to-day.

A new shipping platform has been built at the Nickel Plate freight house.

Robert Southern, formerly of the Pittsburg, is now running on a road in Ohio.

There are a number of good ball players among the employes of the Pittsburg shops.

Joe Haley, engineer on the Nickel Plate, has returned to duty again after a few weeks' vacation.

R. G. Thompson, the Wabash ticket agent, went to Chicago this morning on business for his company.

The Wabash boys seem to favor the nomination of Judge Gresham as the republican candidate for president.

J. E. Keech, formerly of Altoona, Pa., but recently of the Pittsburg shops, has taken a position as a machinist at the Bass works.

J. L. McKean, machinist at the Bass works, was engaged to-day at the Olds works in putting in the new boilers at the engine room.

J. T. Lynch, of the Pittsburg shops, who injured his foot a few days ago, has returned to duty again, but limps around while at work.

Henry Gerdem, yard foreman at the Bass foundry and machine works, is doing honors over the arrival of a new daughter at his home.

J. W. Woodrow, assistant civil engineer for the Nickel Plate, has resigned that position to accept a place with the Smith Bridge company of Toledo.

J. P. Simon, one of the recently suspended Pittsburg employes, has taken a position at the Bass machine shops. Julius is one of the best of workmen.

J. B. Grimshaw, agent of the Lake Shore road at Jackson, Mich., died suddenly of heart disease yesterday. He was thirty-five years old and a very popular official.

"Who do you think will win in the race for the democratic nomination for congress?" is the question asked our reporter a dozen times every morning during his trip around the railroads and shops.

Frank Mannix, formerly of the Pittsburg works, has taken a position as machinist at the Bass works. Frank is a splendid mechanic and will be a valuable man at the Bass works. He was very popular among the employes of the Pittsburg and he will prove equally so at the Bass works.

One of the boys in the Pittsburg shops gives this history of A. H. Hamilton's 2:27 Texas pony: "It was born and bred in Oregon and at an early age was shipped to Kansas and afterwards found its way to this city, consequently the claim of its owner that it is a Texan is disproven by its history. It is a high kicker and a high stepper and this fact prevents it from being flea ridden. No flea on earth could rest on its hide for half a second and A. H. knows it, but still he persists that it is a Texan. With all its faults, however, it is kind and gentle and really has the making of a 'fast flyer.' It can beat the high steppers of T. J. Bodabaugh, F. W. Dunham or Captain Bolts and is really a remarkable animal. A. H. ought to be proud of it."

The ladies of the City Y. M. C. A. will meet in the parlors of the new building to-morrow afternoon, May 25th, at 3 o'clock. A business meeting of importance will be held and all ladies in the city interested in this work are cordially invited to meet with them.
